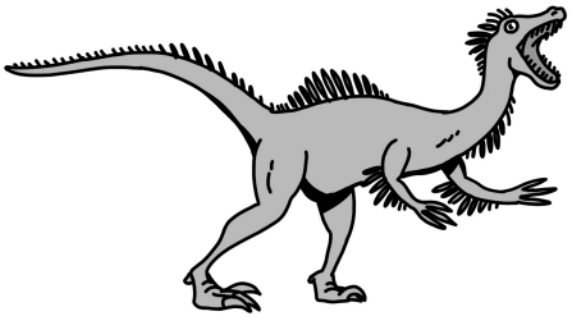
Vocabulary

Lesson: How do we know what dinosaurs looked like?

mystery science

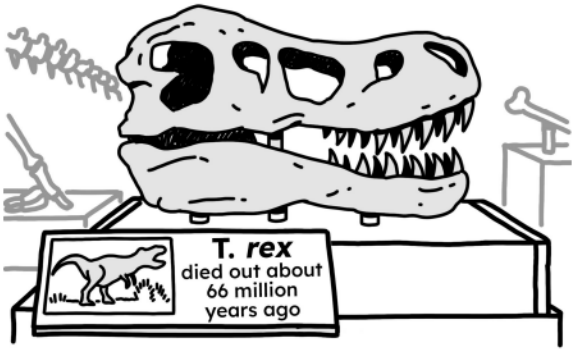
dinosaur



mystery science

a type of animal that lived long ago and that shares traits with modern birds and reptiles

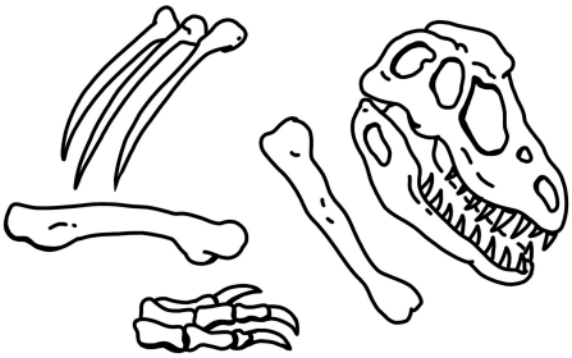
extinct



mystery science

when a type of living thing no longer exists

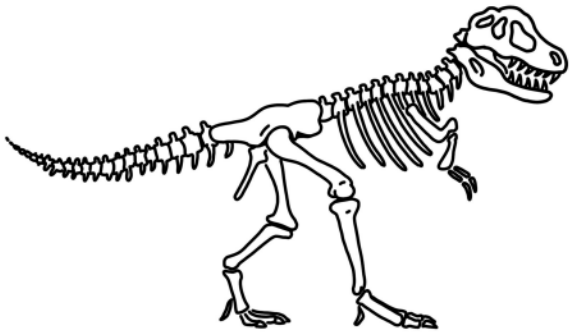
bones



mystery science

the hard parts inside many animals that help give their bodies shape

skeleton



mystery science

all of the bones of an animal fossil

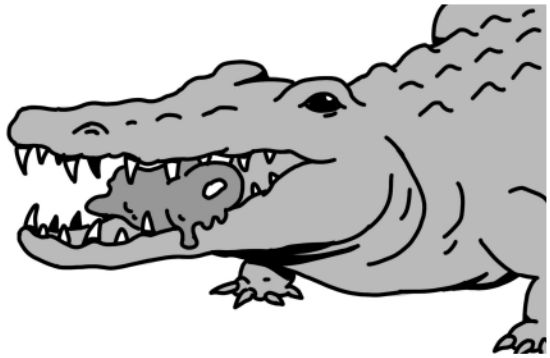
mystery science

the remains of a plant or animal that lived a very, very long time ago

carnivore



an animal that eats only other animals

herbivore

an animal that eats only plants

paleontologist

a scientist who studies fossils observe

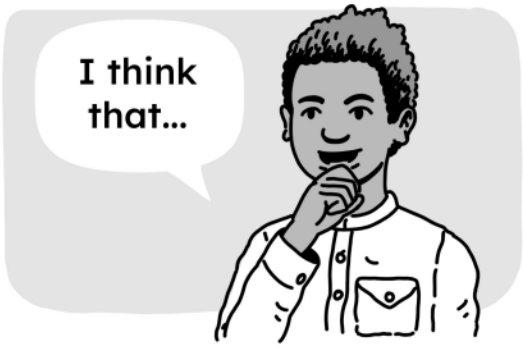
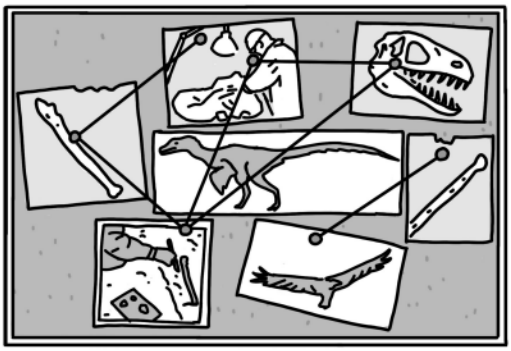
to pay close attention to something

claim



to say or write an idea

evidence



information that can be used to support or reject an idea