

Lesson: Why do dogs wag their tails?

| | |
|------------------------|---|
| behavior | the actions and reactions of living things |
| communicate | to exchange information |
| environment | all the living and nonliving things in a particular place |
| evidence | information that can be used to support or reject an idea |
| observe | to pay close attention to something |
| predator | an animal that hunts and eats other animals |
| protection | the act of keeping something or someone safe |
| social behavior | behaviors of living things that live in groups |
| survive | to stay alive |