Vocabulary

mystery science

Lesson: Why do frogs say “ribbit”?

amphibian	a type of animal that spends part of its life in water and part on land, such as frogs and toads communicate	to give and get information compare	to notice what is similar and what is different between things habitat	the place where an animal or plant lives identify	to figure out what or who something is lake	a large area of water with land all around it pond	an area of still water, larger than a puddle, but smaller than a lake rainforest	a habitat that is usually warm and gets lots of rain species	living things that have very similar traits and can produce offspring with one another swamp	a habitat covered in water and filled with many trees vibrate	to move back and forth quickly