

Lesson: How could you send a secret message to someone far away?

communicate	to give and get information invent	to create something new, often an object or a way of doing something light	what comes from the Sun and lamps and makes it possible to see things sound	vibrations that you can usually hear with your ears