Vocabulary

mystery science

Lesson: How can you keep a house from blowing away in a windstorm?

construction engineer	a person who designs, plans, and builds structures such as buildings design	to make a plan for creating or doing something dust storm	a type of windstorm that moves large amounts of dirt and sand engineer	a person who uses science to come up with solutions to problems hurricane	a type of windstorm that starts as a smaller storm over the ocean model	a pretend version of something that scientists use when the real thing is too big, small, or complicated to work with natural hazard	an event in nature (such as a landslide, earthquake, hurricane, or wildfire) that can be dangerous to living things storm	weather that usually includes strong wind and rain or snow tornado	a type of windstorm, shaped like a funnel, that happens with little warning windstorm	a storm with very strong winds