

Lesson: How long did it take to travel across the country before cars and planes?

| | |
|---|--|
| energy transfer | when energy travels from one place to another |
| experiment | a test used to discover new information about a question |
| heat energy (thermal energy) | energy in the form of heat |
| heat engine | a device that turns heat energy into movement |
| invent | to create something new, often an object or a way of doing something |