Vocabulary

mystery science

Lesson: What will a baby plant look like when it grows up?

flower	a part of a plant that is usually brightly colored leaf	a part of a plant that is often flat and green observe	to pay close attention to something plant	a living thing that doesn't need to eat other living things root	a part of a plant that is usually under the ground seed	a part of a plant that can grow into a baby plant seedling	a young plant that grows from a seed shape	how something looks, such as a circle, square, or triangle size	how big or small something is stem	a part of a plant, usually above ground, that has leaves, flowers, and fruits connected to it