Vocabulary

mystery science

Lesson: How long did it take to travel across the country before cars and planes?

energy transfer	when energy travels from one place to another experiment	a test used to discover new information about a question heat energy (thermal energy)	energy in the form of heat heat engine	a device that turns heat energy into movement invent	to create something new, often an object or a way of doing something