Vocabulary

Lesson: How do they make silly sounds in cartoons?

experiment	a test used to discover new information about a question rain	water drops that fall from clouds sound	vibrations that you can usually hear with your ears storm	weather that usually includes strong wind and rain or snow thunder	a rumbling sound during a storm, often after a flash of lightning vibration	a quick movement back and forth