(SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE VERSION)

Constellation Guide

Some constellations that you can see in the sky each season:

fall

Bootes,
the Ice Cream Cone

Leo,
the Lion

winter

Lyra, the Harp

Sagittarius, the Teapot

Scorpius, the Scorpion

spring

Pegasus, the Horse
(head and front legs)

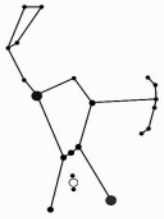

Cygnus, the flying Swan
(only partially visible from Southern Hemisphere)

summer

Canis Major,
the Big Dog

Orion,
the Hunter

Taurus,
the Bull's horns

mystery science

Why do the stars change with the seasons?

(SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE VERSION)

A

Universe
in a Box

A

FOLD

FOLD

FOLD

FOLD

STOP

STOP

Jan

FOLD

FOLD

STOP

STOP

FOLD

FOLD

FOLD

FOLD

B

mystery science

Why do the stars change with the seasons?

B

(SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE VERSION)

Universe
in a Box

