

Vocabulary

Lesson: How do we know what dinosaurs looked like?

mystery science

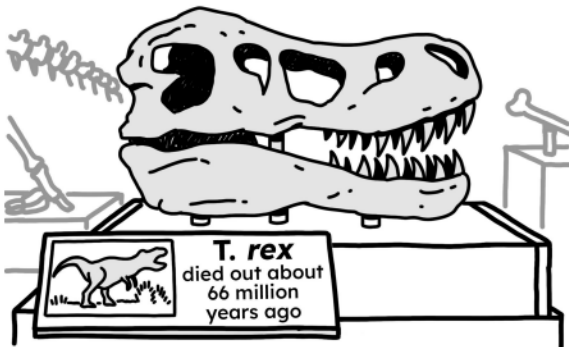

dinosaur

mystery science

a type of animal that lived long ago and that shares traits with modern birds and reptiles

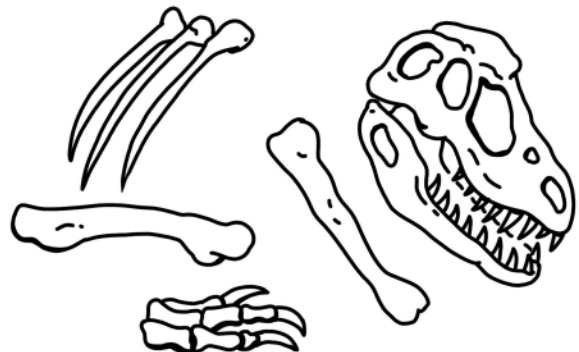

extinct

mystery science

when a type of living thing no longer exists

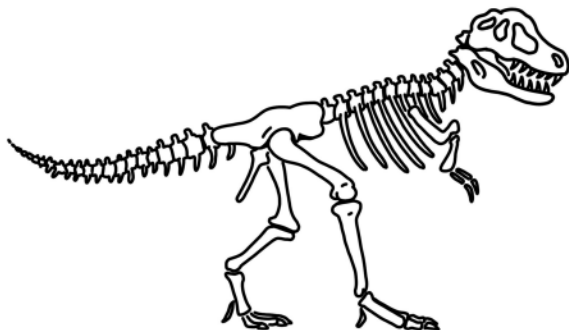

bones

mystery science

the hard parts inside many animals that help give their bodies shape

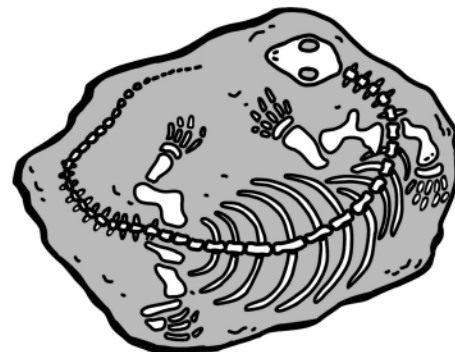

skeleton

mystery science

all of the bones of an animal fossil

mystery science

the remains of a plant or animal that lived a very, very long time ago

carnivore

mystery science

an animal that eats only other animals

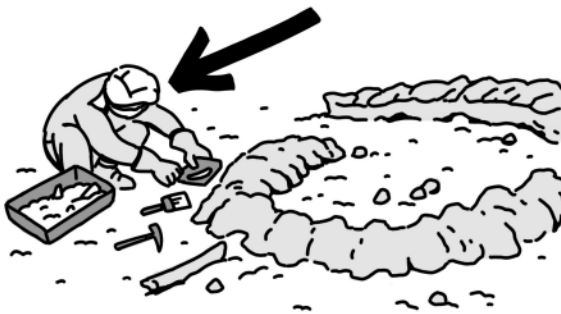

herbivore

mystery science

an animal that eats only plants

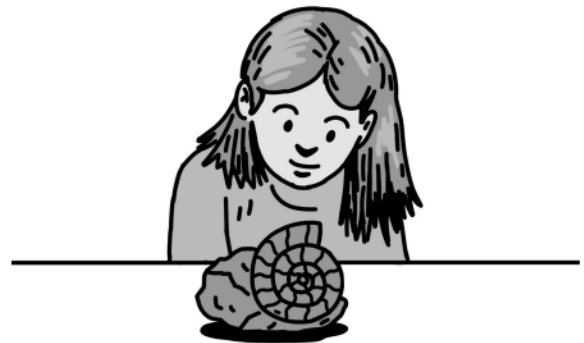

paleontologist

mystery science

a scientist who studies fossils

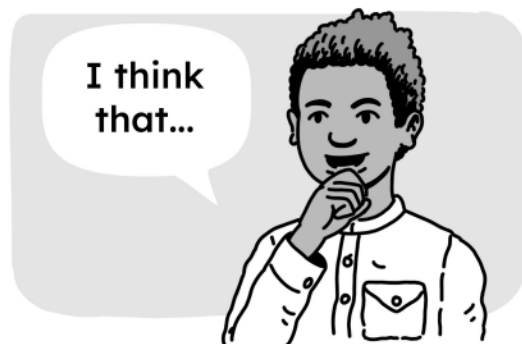

observe

mystery science

to pay close attention to something

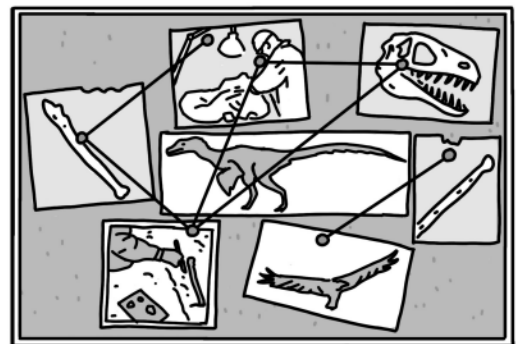

claim

mystery science

to say or write an idea

evidence

mystery science

information that can be used to support or reject an idea