Vocabulary

Lesson: How can marbles save the world?

collision	when one object hits or crashes into another object energy	the ability to do an action energy transfer	when energy travels from one place to another motion	a change in the position of an object predict	to guess what will happen based on things you know sound energy	energy that is in the form of sound that can be heard trials	repeated tests in an experiment