Vocabulary

Lesson: How is your life like an alligator's life?

a stage in the life cycle of every living thing that is the beginning of its life a stage of the life cycle between larva and adult, specifically for butterflies a set of events that repeats in the same order over and over a stage in the life cycle of every living thing that marks the end of its life a stage in the life cycle of every living thing when a baby grows to an adult the stages of life, including birth, growth, reproduction, and death one of the steps of the life cycle a process where an animal's body transforms dramatically, such as a caterpillar turning into a butterfly babies
something that happens again and again and again in a way that can be predicted a stage in the life cycle of living things when they have offspring a habitat covered in water and filled with many trees a picture that shows the passing of time as a line, often with events labeled along the line in the order they happened I ak a a a a a a a a a a a a a a a a a a